

MS-0678
 Douglas, Sir James
 Originals 1835-1873 18 cm
 Microfilm (neg.) 1 reel 35 mm [A00792(3)]

James Douglas (1803-1877) began his career as a fur trader and later became governor of Vancouver Island, 1851-1863, and governor of British Columbia 1858-1864.

These records were formerly microfilmed as Reel A00818.

Box	File	Contents	Date
1	1	Journal of a journey from Fort Vancouver to York Factory - in bound volume with clippings from British newspaper(s) pasted in and some loose material including "Manner of making a canoe".	1835
1	2	Journal of a journey from Fort Vancouver to York Factory and back, transcript. Original accession number M449. Previously catalogued as B/20/1858 and NWp 971.113 D734j. Notes on cover: "Douglas Private Papers Ser. I" and "For second transcript see B-20-1858."
1	3	Synopsis of Columbia affairs	1843-1848
1	5	Governor's messages on the Opening and Prorogation of the House of Assembly [Vancouver Island]. Includes Estimates.	1856-1864
1	4	Expense book	1869
1	6	Martha Douglas journal of a trip to Europe. Some pages have pressed flowers and leaves.	1872-1873
1	7	A Guide to Family Devotion (Douglas family bible) – only Family Record pages microfilmed.
2	1	Miscellaneous notes and clipping book	[1837?]
2	2	Miscellaneous notes and clipping book	[183?]
2	3	Miscellaneous notes and clipping book	[184?]
2	4	Clipping book	1859-1862