

MS-0813

Patrick John Paterson Sinnott

Originals 1909-1969 35 cm

Patrick John Paterson Sinnott (1889-1978), was a Victoria lawyer. Records include photocopy of unpublished short story, "The Right Time of Day"; carbon copy of unpublished autobiography "Sixty-five Years in a Tort Factory"; correspondence, 1911-1967; scrapbooks, 1933-1969 containing clippings concerning his legal career, photographs, correspondence, and other material; speeches connected with his campaign for a seat in the Legislative Assembly, Victoria riding, 1933; personal legal papers; material concerning legal cases; and material related to the Saltire Society of Victoria, B.C.

Box	File	Contents	Date
1	1	"Sixty-five years in a Tort Factory" typescript (carbon copy) of unpublished autobiography, 195 leaves
1	2	"The Right Time of Day" photocopy of unpublished short story, 27 leaves
1	3	Speeches (political)	1933
1	4	Personal legal papers	1909-1947
1	5	Correspondence	1911-1947
1	6	Correspondence	1948-1967
1	7	Material concerning legal cases handled by Patrick John Paterson Sinnott
1	8	Awards and honors
1	9	Material related to the Saltire Society of Victoria, B.C.
1	10	Speech to the Duncan Burns Club
1	11	Miscellaneous
2	1	Scrapbook	1933-1948
2	2	Scrapbook	1948-1955
3	1	Scrapbook	1955-1957
3	2	Scrapbook	1960-1964
3	3	Scrapbook	1965-1969