

A
B 20
B11

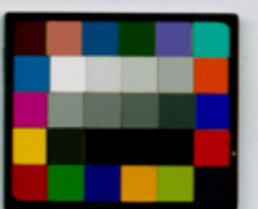

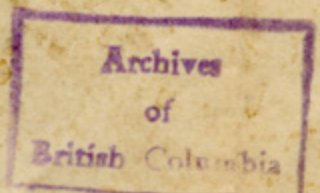

^{2th}
Babine 2nd Oct 1847

Mr. John Favel

Easton & Harvey arrived during the past night and I was glad to learn that you found no mistake in the account of the Salmon forwarded, I shall dispatch two barrels loaded, to morrow morning. I have counted the quantity forwarded, and beg you will be careful in counting them on receipt, I do not mention the number in order to prove you you will understand my meaning

Should you want anything that it is in my power to furnish you with, do not be backward in asking for it and rest assured that as long as you will fair, I will be ready you will find a friend in

Donald McLean

Mr. John Stansel
Fort Babine B.C.

Archives
of British Columbia

Babine 27th Oct. 1847.

Mr. Chas. Favel

Castore (?) & Haveux (?) arrived during the past night and I was glad to learn that you found no mistake in the account of the Salmon forwarded. I shall dispatch Two Canoes loaded tomorrow morning. I have counted the quantity you forwarded and beg you will be careful in counting them on receipt. I do not mention the number in order to prove you. You will understand my meaning.

Should you want anything
that it is in my power to furnish you with do not be backward in asking for it and rest assured that as long as you act fair and above board you will find a friend in

Donald McLean.

