

Campbell 212

Police & Prob

F265

To His Excellency
Francis Seymour Governor of British Columbia and its dependencies &c &c &c

The
humble Petition of your Excellency's unfortunate servant
Sheweth

That on or about the 24th of August 1868, your humble petitioner surrendered himself on a charge of robbery, at the suit of James Bailey, of the Royal Oak, Laanich Road.

That your humble petitioner was found guilty, and sentenced to 12 calendar months hard labor.

That your Excellency's humble petitioner is about 7 months in Gaul at present.

Your humble petitioner therefore respectfully prays your Excellency

please turn over

FILE 265 CAMPBELL, ALEXANDER

COLONIAL
CORRESPONDENCE

PABC

to release him from his present wretched condition, or act in the premises, as your Excellency judges by Sea proper, and he will ever pray, as in duty bound to be Your Excellency's humble and very thankful Servant.

Alex Campbell,

Victoria Gaol.
April 5th 1859.

