June 10th 1858.

Dear Sir,

Allow me to introduce to you Mr. P. B. Cornwall of Sacramento City, a gentleman with whom I have been connected in business matters more or less since 1849. Mr. Cornwall visits your place and the country about it on a tour of observation. He will be thankful for any information which you may give him which may assist him in his examinations, and I will also feel under obligations to you for your friendly advice. It would afford me much gratification to pay my respects to you myself in person, but my duties at that place will prevent me from enjoying that plea-

Since at present hoping that the time is not very distant when I shall do so I remain

Very respectfully your obt. servt
In this Excellency Gen Douglas M. S.

P.S. Some gentlemen and myself have an idea of opening an office for the purchase and assay of gold and at Victoria or Esquimaux.
Mr Cornwall will converse with you about it.

Very yours
M. S.
