IN THE MATTER OF DAMAGE CAUSED TO
THE GOODS AND CHATTELS OF W. H.
MOORE BY THE STRIKING COAL MINERS
AT EXTENSION, VANCOUVER ISLAND.

TO THE HONOURABLE THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR FOR THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

THE HUMBLE PETITION OF W. H. MOORE SHEWETH AS FOLLOWS:-

1. Your Petitioner W. H. Moore resides at Extension, Vancouver Island, in the Province of British Columbia.
2. On or about the first week in August, 1913, the workmen employed in and about the coal mines in the Province of British Columbia commenced openly to act in a lawless manner and in defiance of authority caused great damage to some of the residents in and about the Cities and Towns of the Districts in which the coal mines are situate.
3. On Tuesday the 12th day of August, 1913, a mob of lawless
mine workers caused considerable damage in the Town of South Wellington and Mr. Cunningham the Manager of the Mines at Extension aforesaid then telephoned to the Chief of Police at the City of Nanaimo, British Columbia, requesting that sufficient police protection be sent to Extension as he greatly feared that the mob would proceed to Extension and cause considerable damage to property in Extension to say nothing of placing lives of residents in danger. No response to the said appeal for help was made.
4. The next day, namely Wednesday the 13th day of August,
1913, a mob of lawless mine workers was reported to be approaching the said Town of Extension and the Manager of the Mines at Extension telephoned again to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that police protection be sent, but asbefore no response was made.

5. About four o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday the 13th day of August, 1913, the mob had reached Extension and Mr. Frank Bevan of Extension telephoned to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that a sufficient force be sent to protect the property and residents of Extension from the marauding of the mob, but no assistance was given.

6. The mob shortly on arrival at the said Town of Extension proceeded to cause great havoc to several of the houses, stores and buildings in Extension and proceeded to demolish the residence of your Petitioner. The articles set out in the Schedule hereto were destroyed or stolen from the home of your Petitioner and your Petitioner has suffered loss and damage to the extent of One hundred and one dollars and twenty-five cents ($101.25) as shown in the annexed Schedule.

7. Your Petitioner is therefore without sufficient furniture or clothing and is unable to purchase new clothing and household furniture.

Your Petitioner therefore suffered damage and loss to the extent of One hundred and one dollars and twenty-five cents ($101.25) and humbly prays that your Honour will be pleased to view the circumstances and to recommend the granting of relief in the premises.

AND your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray, etc.

THE HUMBLE PETITION OF WILLIAM BURT SHEWETH AS

1. Your Petitioner William Burt resides at Extension, in the Province of British Columbia.

2. On or about the first week in August, 1913, the workmen employed in and about the coal mines in the Province of British Columbia commenced openly to act in a lawless manner
and in defiance of authority caused great damage to some of the residents in and about the Cities and Towns of the

4. The next day, namely Wednesday the 13th day of August, 1913, a mob of lawless mine workers was reported to be approaching the said Town of Extension and the Manager of the Mines at Extension telephoned again to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that police protection be sent, but as before no response was made.

5. About four o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday the 13th day of August, 1913, the mob had reached Extension and Mr. Frank Bevan telephoned to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that a sufficient force be sent to protect the property and residents of Extension from the marauding of the mob, but no assistance was given.

6. The mob shortly on arrival at the said Town of Extension proceeded to cause great havoc to several of the houses, stores and buildings in Extension.

7. In the afternoon of Thursday the 14th day of August, 1913, the military arrived in Extension and open lawlessness for the time being was suspended. The military directed their attention to rescuing the residents who had fled to the woods for protection and on the evening of Thursday withdrew from Extension to Nanaimo leaving no one behind to afford protection to the houses and property in Extension.

8. Between Thursday night and the following Sunday night bands of strikers and rioters entered the home of your Petitioner and carried away the personal property of your Petitioner and the articles set forth in the Schedule hereto are a list of the goods stolen or destroyed by reason of the absence of protection as aforesaid.

ing the said Town of Extension and the Manager of the Mines at Extension telephoned again to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that police protection be sent, but as before no response was made.

5. About four o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday the 13th day of August, 1913, the mob had reached Extension and Mr. Frank Bevan of Extension telephoned to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that a sufficient force be sent to protect the property and residents of Extension from the marauding of the mob, but no assistance was given.

6. The mob shortly on arrival at the said Town of Extension proceeded to cause great havoc to several of the houses, stores and buildings in Extension and proceeded to demolish the residence of your Petitioner. The articles set out in the Schedule hereto were destroyed or stolen from the home of your Petitioner and your Petitioner has suffered loss and damage to the extent of Five hundred and ninety-four dollars and fifty cents ($594.50) as shewn in the annexed Schedule.

7. Your Petitioner is therefore without sufficient furniture or clothing and is unable to purchase new clothing and household furniture.

Your Petitioner therefore suffered damage and loss to the extent of Five hundred and ninety-four dollars and fifty cents ($594.50) and humbly prays that your Honour will be pleased to view the circumstances and to recommend the granting of relief in the premises.

AND your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray, etc.

IN THE MATTER OF DAMAGE CAUSED TO
THE GOODS AND CHATTELS OF LUE LUM-BARD BY THE STRIKING COAL MINERS
AT EXTENSION, VANCOUVER ISLAND,

OF BRITISH COLUMBIA:

THE HUMBLE PETITION OF LUE LUMBARD SHEWETH AS FOLLOWS:-

1. Your Petitioner Lue Lumbarð resides at Extension, Vancouver Island, in the Province of British Columbia.
2. On or about the first week in August, 1913, the workmen employed in and about the coal mines in the Province of British Columbia commenced openly to act in a lawless manner
and in defiance of authority caused great damage to some of the residents in and about the Cities and Towns in the Districts in which the coal mines are situate.
3. On Tuesday the 12th day of August, 1913, a mob of lawless
mine workers caused considerable damage in the Town of South Wellington and Mr. Cunningham the Manager of the Mines at the City of Extension aforesaid then telephoned to the Chief of Police at the City of Nanaimo, British Columbia, requesting that sufficient police protection be sent to Extension as he greatly feared that the mob would proceed to Extension and cause considerable damage to property in Extension to say nothing of placing lives of residents in danger. No response to the said appeal for help was made.
4. The next day, namely Wednesday the 13th day of August, a mob of lawless mine workers was reported to be approaching the said Town of Extension and the Manager of the Mines at Extension telephoned again to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that police protection be sent, but as before no response was made.

5. About four o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday the 13th day of August, 1913, the mob had reached Extension and Mr. Frank Bevan of Extension telephoned to the Chief of Police at Nanaimo reporting the condition of affairs and requested that a sufficient force be sent to protect the property and residents of Extension from the marauding of the mob, but no assistance was given.

6. The mob shortly on arrival at the said Town of Extension proceeded to cause great havoc to several of the houses, stores and buildings and proceeded to demolish the residence of your Petitioner. The articles set out in the Schedule hereto were burnt up with the home of your Petitioner and your Petitioner has suffered loss and damage to the extent of One hundred and eighty-four dollars ($184.00) as shewn in the annexed Schedule.

7. Your Petitioner is therefore without sufficient furniture or clothing and is unable to purchase new clothing and household furniture.

Your Petitioner therefore suffered damage and loss to the extent of One hundred and eighty-four dollars ($184.00) and humbly prays that your Honour will be pleased to view the circumstances and to recommend the granting of relief in the premises.

AND your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray,
